

Structure

It is all a two-way street with a person from the leader or subcommittee being chairperson on each of the other smaller committees.

This format allows us to inform members and ensure they have a better understanding of how we work, how we interact with members and all the ways members can get involved.